IMPORTANT MESSAGE ABOUT YOUR LOAN

This letter serves as Bank of America, N.A.'s demand for payment and advises you that Bank of America, N.A. and/or its investors and/or insurers have agreed to accept a short sale involving the above-referenced property and the referenced subordinate account(s). This demand should be used by the closing agent as our formal demand statement. No additional statement will be issued. This approval is exclusive to the offer from the buyer referenced in this letter.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU

The owner of your mortgage note, the mortgage insurer (if your loan is covered by mortgage insurance), and Bank of America, N.A. waive their right to pursue collection of any deficiency following the completion of your short sale and your debt is considered settled.

When the deficiency is forgiven, you are no longer responsible for repayment of that amount, and it will not be sold or transferred later to a third-party for collection.

This short sale transaction will create a deficiency because your total outstanding debt will not be paid in full from the proceeds of the sale. The deficiency will equal the remaining balance due under the mortgage note and mortgage or deed of trust, after subtracting (1) the amount of cash proceeds we receive from the closing of the short sale and (2) any cash contribution that you are required to make at or before the closing.

The estimated amount of your deficiency is $38,495.42. The estimated amount of this deficiency you will be responsible for is $0.00. These estimates represent the combined deficiency and remaining obligation for all of the loans referenced above.

We will report any debt forgiven to the IRS. Currently, federal law provides for certain exceptions to tax liability when debt is forgiven in connection with a foreclosure prevention transaction. In order to know whether you qualify for one of these exceptions and what other tax impacts this transaction may have for you, we recommend that you contact your tax advisor. Additional information can also be found at www.irs.gov.

Bank of America, N.A. will report the debt to the credit reporting agencies as "paid in full for less than the full balance". To learn more about the potential impact of a short sale on your credit, visit <http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/edu/pubs/consumer/credit/cre24.shtm>.
