Dear [REDACTED]

As your home loan servicer, we are dedicated to helping you find a solution to avoid foreclosure. We are pleased to inform you that the short sale offer submitted has been approved for the Bank of America Cooperative Short Sale Program.

What This Means to You as the Seller

Bank of America, N.A. and/or its investors and insurers (if applicable) have agreed to accept a short payoff ("Short Sale") for the above-referenced property and first lien mortgage loan. This cooperative short sale approval is exclusive to the offer from the buyer referenced in this letter. Please accept this letter as the formal payoff demand statement to be used by the closing agent to complete the transaction. You will need to forward a copy of this letter to your closing agent, because no additional statement will be issued.

Under this agreement Bank of America, N.A. and/or its investors and/or insurers will accept less than the payoff balance due on the above referenced property and release you from any further financial responsibility for the outstanding first lien mortgage loan. Please note that if the cooperative short sale does not close within the 120 day marketing period, then we will resume normal servicing activities allowed under this agreement, which may include foreclosure.

Detailed below are the conditions of this approval, along with next steps that will need to be completed by the dates and/or timeframes noted. Please read through all the information carefully and call our Cooperative Short Sale Team at (877) 824-0978 x3954 if you have any questions.

Conditions of the Cooperative Short Sale Approval

The conditions of the cooperative short sale approval are as follows:

2. Any change to the terms and representations contained in the submitted Request for Approval of Short Sale or the submitted sales contract between you and the Buyer must be approved Bank of America, N.A. in writing. Bank of America, N.A. is under no obligation to approve such changes.

4. If you are currently in bankruptcy or you file bankruptcy prior to closing, you must obtain any required consent or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

5. Closing must take place no later than 12/16/2011 or this approval is void. If an extension is requested and/or approved, interest on the loan will be charged per day through closing.

7. Another buyer cannot be substituted without the prior written approval of Bank of America, N.A. Furthermore, the buyer may not alter the capacity in which title is to be taken. For example, a buyer may not enter into a contract to purchase a property and then amend the contract to purchase the property as trustee for a trust or any other legal entity.

Prior to releasing any funds to holders of subordinate liens/mortgages, the closing agent must obtain a written commitment from each subordinate lien holder that it will release Borrower from all claims and liability relating to the subordinate lien in exchange for receiving the agreed upon payoff amount.
12. There are to be no transfers of property within 30 days of the closing of this transaction. 15. If the closing is delayed and the Investor/Insurer agrees to an extension of the original closing date, the Borrower/Seller will be responsible for any daily fees through the new date(s) of closing, extension fees and foreclosure sale postponement fees. The Borrower/Seller will be responsible for any additional costs or fees over the stated approved amounts.
16. The closing agent must email a completed Assignment of Unearned Premium and Important Notice Regarding Income Tax Reporting (enclosed) along with a certified copy of the final estimated HUD-1 Settlement Statement to upload to Equator 72 hours before closing.
17. Bank of America, N.A. reserves the right to revoke and/or modify the terms and conditions of this short sale approval in the event that 1) any information provided and used as the basis for our approval changes and/or 2) if we discover any evidence of fraud and/or misrepresentation by any parties involved in the transaction.

If the Seller is entitled to receive any proceeds based on a claim for damage to the property under any policy of insurance, including homeowner's, lender-placed, casualty, fire, flood, etc., or if the Seller is entitled to receive other miscellaneous proceeds, as that term is defined in the deed of trust/mortgage (which could include Community Development Block Grant Program (CDBG) funds), the proceeds should have been disclosed before Bank of America, N.A. considered the request for short sale. If Bank of America, N.A. receives a check for insurance or miscellaneous proceeds that were not previously disclosed, we will have the right to keep the proceeds and apply them to Bank of America, N.A.'s loss after the short sale. Similarly, we would have the right to claim the proceeds to offset any losses if they were not previously disclosed and were sent directly to the Borrower.

What You Should Know

The difference between the remaining amount of principal owed and the amount that Bank of America, N.A. received from the sale will be reported to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) on Form 1099C, as debt forgiveness. In some cases, debt forgiveness could be taxed as income. If you are eligible for moving, rental and relocation expenses, the amount we pay may also be reported as income. We suggest that you contact the IRS or your tax preparer to determine if you may have any tax liability.

We will continue to report the account to the major credit reporting agencies until the completion of this transaction. Upon completion of this transaction, we will report that the loan was "paid in full for less than the full balance."
